

MILITARY TRAUMA: THE SACRED WOUND AND THE WARRIOR'S JOURNEY HOME

Tuesday October 23, 2018

10am to 4pm

Light lunch will be provided.

Clear PathTM
FOR VETERANS
NEW ENGLAND
SUPPORTING THE JOURNEY HOME™

84 Antietam Street • Devens, MA

Ed's books will be available
at this training.

Suggested Readings for the event:

War and the Soul by Edward Tick

Warrior's Return by Edward Tick

War and Moral Injury edited by Robert

Meagher and Douglas Pryer

Tribe by Sebastian Junger

Free Workshop for Practitioners, Veterans and Family members

With Edward Tick, Ph.D.

*Edward Tick, Ph.D., has been working to heal the wounds of violent trauma and warfare in our vets, families, society and the world for over forty years. Ed is recognized as a pioneer and an international leader in developing holistic, spiritually and culturally based trauma healing. A transformational healer, psychotherapist, writer, educator and poet, he is co-founder and director of Soldier's Heart, Inc. (www.soldiersheart.net). He serves as subject matter expert trainer on healing Post-traumatic Stress Disorder and Moral Injury for the U.S. military. He is the author of six books including the groundbreaking War and the Soul and most recently Warrior's Return. Ed has been leading annual healing and reconciliation journeys to Vietnam since 2000 and working toward international healing and reconciliation between nations.*